

Mole Clan

Welcome, Moles!

I look forward with delicious anticipation to working with you this Twilight Covenning. The exhilarating mixture of wood smoke, rustling leaves, brilliant colors, and drums and chanting always wakes up my senses and sharpens my awareness. In this state of heightened attention, we'll listen to what our senses have to tell us, and return messages via the same pathways.

This stuff works best when you really immerse yourself in it. Fortunately, at Twilight Covenning, we have that luxury, for three whole days. So come prepared to turn off your cell phone for the weekend and really allow yourself to be fully present in this place apart.

Our first Clan meeting will be directly following the Opening Circle on Friday night, so be sure to arrive in plenty of time to get yourself settled in beforehand. I'll be at or around our Clan table in the dining hall from before dinner until it's time to go to the circle. Dinner is 6:30-8:30 and the Opening Circle will take place around 9:00pm, followed by clan time and the Releasing Fire.

I can't advise you strongly enough to read through the confirmation-and-directions letter. It tells you everything you need to know about the gathering itself. Take special note of the clothing and ritual objects on the what-to-bring list. For Friday night's rituals you will need both your vegetable and your burnable item. And long experience of this site tells me to come prepared for any kind of weather.

In addition, for Mole Clan, bring:

- comfortable clothing that's easy to move around in
- journal and writing implement
- something mole-related, magical, and/or autumnal to decorate our clan table (optional but nice)

This year we'll share with Caribou Clan the privilege of facilitating the ClearSpace ritual on Saturday night. For ClearSpace, if you can, please bring:

- blankets, comforters, cushions, and fabric in cool colors – blues, greens, purples (solids and magical patterns preferred)

Mole Clan

- strings of blue twinkle lights
- a folding chair

Be sure to mark these items with your name on a strip of masking tape, so we'll be able to return them to you.

I think the Moles will be a great group this year. I'm looking forward to a fun and magical experience for all. See you at Twilight Covenning!
