

Program Proposal for Rites of Spring

If you are interested in presenting a workshop or performance, leading a discussion or affinity group, leading a ritual or children's activity, please fill out the form below with as much detail as possible and return it to us by March 30. Program decisions will be made at that time. Any proposals received after that date will be used only if there are gaps to be filled. Please number your proposals in order of your preference; we cannot guarantee more than one presentation slot per person. If you are proposing more than one presentation, please print more than one copy of this form and fill out the Name and Presentation information on each. You may also fill out the form on your computer and e-mail it to: earthspirit@earthspirit.com
